

Wallace and Gromit

The food is flying!

BOMB! BANG!

I love how the star looks, and it really ties back to star constellations. However, not exactly dog themed.

Feedback: I think about how it has a star. It looks like it is EXTRA good dog food.

The dog makes it clear what animal it is for, and the tongue looks cute and like the dog is hungry for some grub. But it looks a bit too normal for my tastes.

Feedback: It bothers me that the S goes up to the ear to the dog. And the tongue licks the R. (along with some silent roasting of my sketched dog)

Similar problem here. It looks too normal, though it is a nice and simple design. This is a logo though, and a logo can be simple since the rest of the design of a food bag can tie it all together.

Feedback: I understand the idea behind the paw. But I think it is more important that the paw is more realistic. And that the F would have been more to the left. (The word FOOD being in a bow)
